ABOUT THE ARTIST

DeBord is a Florida-based photography artist. Water, trees and the sun are primary recurring obsessions of her art. "Having grown up in the majestic mountains of Virginia, nature is deep in my blood," Barbara explains. She sees the practice of photography as a way to connect to nature, a higher power, herself, and ultimately to those who view her images. "Art has the power to give us a common ground," she states, "and I like being a part of that."

DeBord's work can also be seen on display during November and December 2019 at Southern Exposure Art Gallery in the Railroad Arts District in Tallahassee, FL.
